Dear Kol HaTorah Kula finalist,

MAZEL TOV!

We are beyond proud of you for achieving this incredible milestone of learning all 613 Mitzvos! Your dedication and hard work have earned you a spot in the four-day ultimate KHK experience.

You are about to experience a high-energy program full of fun and inspiration, including exciting trips, the grand Siyum Hamitzvos, and meaningful moments at 770, the Ohel, the Rebbe's Room, and the banquet.

Joining the KHK trip means that you have agreed to the following guidelines and expectations:

Behavior:

- Listen the first time when a staff member asks you to do something.
- Be quiet when you are asked to be quiet.
- Be where you are supposed to be, on time.
- Act with respect towards all staff, chayolim, and equipment.
- Speak only of appropriate topics and with appropriate language

Safety Rules:

- Chidon Sweater must be worn at all times.
- ID tags must be worn on Thursday, Friday, and Sunday.
- Stay with your bunk and attend all scheduled activities.
- Chayolim who do not have parental consent, may not walk home alone.
- If a chayol is not where she is supposed to be, Chidon reserves the right to dismiss her from the program.

Dress Code:

- School uniforms must be worn on Thursday, Friday, and Sunday.
- All clothing, including Shabbos clothes and water park gear, must be fully tznius, covering the collarbone, elbows, and knees.

Halacha:

- There is no Eiruv in Crown Heights. Therefore, on Shabbos, one may not carry anything outside.
- There must be no singing in the streets, or when on the open air buses.. Sing indoors only.

Phones and Any Other Electronics:

- Phones and other devices are not allowed at the Chidon program or at any Chidon event. If you do bring a phone, it must remain with your hosts throughout all Chidon activities.
- Head staff have phones in case of emergency.

By signing below, you are committing to follow these standards and show respect for the program, your peers, and all staff.

Please note that if you choose not to follow these guidelines, we may need to dismiss you from the program. In such a case, no refunds will be provided for travel or program expenses, and your school will be responsible for you from that point on.

We are thrilled to celebrate your achievement and can't wait to share this special time with you!

Best regards,
Rabbi Shimmy Weinbaum
