• HAKHEL THEN

In the times of the Beis Hamikdosh, during Chol Hamoed Sukkos of the year following a Shmita year, a grand Hakhel would take place.

Loud trumpets were blown in Yerusholayim to call the people. All the men, women and children from near and far would gather in the Beis Hamikdosh to hear the king read from the Torah. It felt as if Hashem Himself was commanding them to keep the Torah. This awesome experience strengthened the entire nation to do Torah and Mitzvos with true Yiras Shomayim, and the inspiration stayed with them for their whole life.

We can experience the same thing today!

The Rebbe strongly encouraged all children to gather together to Learn, Daven and give Tzedoko and strengthen themselves to win over the Yetzer horro.

These gatherings will inspire the children and strengthen their Yiras Shomayim for their whole life!

When an army is at war, it must always be prepared.

An attack may come at any moment from any of its borders.

This means being alert at all times, on all fronts.
